

Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society Educational Speaker Grant Application

Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society (VECCS) Educational Speaker Grants are available to state and local veterinary medical associations, veterinary technician medical associations and other national and international non-profit groups that organize continuing education courses. This Grant is to be used to provide financial support for speaker compensation for emergency and critical care related continuing education. Individual $600 grants will be awarded to 10 different organizations per calendar year, and will be applied exclusively toward speaker honorarium costs. This Grant is given in support of the VECCS mission, which is to provide a forum for collaboration of all individuals interested and involved with veterinary emergency and critical care medicine and surgery, and to promote the advancement of knowledge and high standards of practice in veterinary emergency medicine and critical patient care.

The organization must complete the following application. The emergency and critical care topics can be surgical, medical, or practice management related. Speakers must be members in good standing of the VECCS. The organization can select the speaker, or request a list of names of VECCS member speakers and topics.
